WHEREAS,

SUNDRY

YOUNG MEN

Did Enter the Park belonging to

Sir G. W. Preſcott, Bart.

THE Eleventh Day of December, 1798, under pretence of Shooting Rabbits, and then did wantonly ſhoot and kill two tame Ducks belonging to a neighbouring Gentleman;

I DO THEREFORE GIVE NOTICE

TO all deſcriptions of Perſons, not to enter the ſaid Park on any pretence whatever, with Dogs, Guns, or Ferrets, without first calling on the Keeper, and going in company with him during the whole time they are within the ſaid Park.

Witneſs my Hand,

JOHN RUSSEL.
